My association with AWAG and Ilaben is fairly old. I took over as one of the trustees of AWAG in the year 1997. After the sudden death of Ilaben, I willingly assumed the post of the President of AWAG. Right from its inception, AWAG's vision and mission to work on women's issues has remained clear. This indeed is very satisfying.

From my Desk

More than three decades old journey of AWAG has remained devoted to help women achieve their rights effortlessly and empower them. Even today our society does not allow women to enjoy their rights adequately. In this struggle, AWAG has established its position as an organization that helps them achieve their fundamental rights. The main objective of AWAG is to help distressed women realize their own identity. For that the organization intervenes on behalf of these marginalized and deprived women to establish their own personality.

AWAG founded by Dr. Ila Pathak in 1981 has remained committed to its task of helping women to attain social justice and to raise their voice against all types of domestic violence.

AWAG feels satisfied that it has been able to publish a module titled ‘Astitva thi Vyaktitva Vikas’ (from existence to personality development) prepared by Dr. Ilaben Pathak for workshops on women concretization.

AWAG’s priority lies in activities which are aimed to protest all types of violence against women. In that context AWAG has got associated with a study ‘Transactional Marriage Abandonment: A New Form of Violence against Women conducted by the University of Lincoln, U.K.

AWAG is active at village level also. In our rural wing through its branch at Radhanpur district, AWAG tries to solve women’s problems of the surrounding villages. In the same way, we have a women’s cell in Rapar police station, where various problem concerning to women are taken up for solution. Besides that, AWAG has several ongoing programs which continue to yield positive results.

AWAG's Vision, Goal, Mission and Objectives

Vision

AWAG's vision is to assert the individuality of woman and to support her in her struggle for survival, to get social justice, and to assert equality.

Goal

The goal of the organization is to empower women through assertion of their individuality, to strategize towards survival, to get social justice and equality.

Mission

AWAG strives to assert the individuality of women to make them aware that they are equal to men in all aspects of life. Women are supported to get social justice in their struggle to survive and develop as equal human beings. AWAG considers raising awareness as the first step towards empowerment; income generation can only be the second. A woman's right to her body, her duty towards keeping it in health and avoiding blind faith are considered equally important. The habit of savings is promoted. Thus AWAG has holistic approach towards women's empowerment wherein women's rights are seen as human rights.

Objectives

- ❖ To raise the image of women in society
- ❖ To protest against elements in society which demean the image of women
- ❖ To establish women's equal status in society
- ❖ To contribute to women's participation in the development of the country
- ❖ To support the rights of women to live with dignity and to support their welfare, education etc.
- ❖ To work for the economic betterment of poor women by encouraging and promoting associations and co-operative societies to provide financial support
- ❖ To work towards education, health, and welfare of children and adolescents

Violence against Women

AWAG has been active on the issue of violence against women and continually devises fresh strategies to counter this social evil along with hosting a number of activities to showcase its protest against all types of violence.

Book Launch - Astitva thi Vyaktitva Vikas

On 14th June, 2014, AWAG hosted a book launch of the book “Astitva thi Vyaktitva Vikas” under its own publication. The book was launched by esteemed personality, Dr. Vikasben Desai of Surat, Gujarat.

This book is authored by AWAG's Founder Secretary, late Dr. Ila Pathak. The content of the book includes the module of Awareness Raising Workshops that is one of the core activities of the organization. Right from its inception, AWAG believes that income generation can only come next, but the first phase is to bring awareness among women about their social rights, justice and self esteem. This is because only after attaining social justice, she will be able to celebrate her economic independence in its true sense. The module of the book focuses on this aspect and helps to conduct a ‘Five Days Awareness Raising Workshop.’ The content of the book includes fun with learning activities. Women are helped to know important aspects of self awareness and self esteem through group activities, games and play way.

Several people who read this book shared their reviews with AWAG and many of them were published in daily newspapers.

Nirbhaya / Damini Shahadat Day-Public Program and Press Conference

On 26th December 2014, a press conference was organized at AWAG Bhudarpura office in relation to Nirbhaya/ Damini Shahadat Day. Eight representatives of various Gujarati and English print and electronic media were present. There was a public program regarding the same issue on 29th of December 2014. The press conference hosted on the 26th, three days prior to the actual program was to boost public participation in the program and to bring more awareness. The public program was hosted at Sardar Baag Pavement, Lal Darwaja. Retired judge of Ahmedabad District Session's Court and City Civil Court, Shri JyotsnaYagnik was the chief guest. Several organizations of Ahmedabad and more than 1000 women participated in this event. The Public Program motivated the implementation of Justice Verma Committee guidelines.

Workshop on TRANS- a new form of violence against women

Upon invitation of University of Lincoln, UK for research project of Trans National Marriages abandonment, a new form of violence against women, AWAG started a research on this issue with department of criminology, Senior Lecturer, Dr. Sundari Anitha. Mental Health Care of Women

Overview of the project

The 'Mental Health Project' undertaken by AWAG was started from the month of 29th December, 2008. AWAG had worked on the 'Mental Health Project' from September 2007 to August 2008, in the same areas viz Bapunagar, Rakhial, Gomtipur, Saraspur and Ramol. To continue benefiting these women who needed medical support and counseling services, AWAG got an opportunity to extend its help by continuing its work of the Mental Health Project in the same areas, followed by the same objectives and activities to be undertaken.

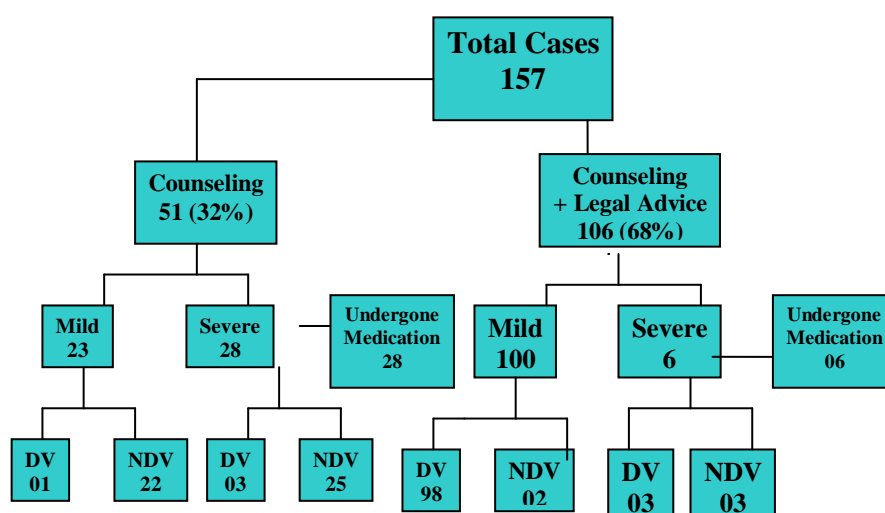

The main objectives are:

- a) To provide counseling and psychiatric support to persons suffering from mental illnesses,
- b) To strengthen women suffering from Domestic Violence to have better quality of life.

In order to fulfill these objectives the following activities were undertaken-

1. Approaching communities to disseminate awareness about mental health through community leaders.
2. Guiding the patients to the path of curative treatment.
3. Counseling
4. Psychiatric care with medicines.
5. Group therapy through workshops.

The awareness raising meetings were conducted in areas viz Bapunagar, Rakhial, Gomtipur, Saraspur and Ramol. A total of 144 meetings were covered and 3878 women were intervened. The theme of the meetings was to provide a general understanding of mental disorders and the need to treat them for a healthy living. Consequently, a total of 157 cases were identified and was referred to at AWAG's mental health centre, the details of which are tabulated as under.

To summarize:

Total counseling cases = 51 (32%)	Total number of mild cases=123 (78%)
Total counseling and legal advice case=106 (68%)	Total number of severe cases=34 (22%)
Total counseling and advice case=00 (0%)	Total number of Domestic Violence (DV) cases = 105 (67 %)
Total number of severe cases undergone medical help=34 (100%)	Total number of Non Domestic Violence (NDV) cases = 52 (33%)

The total cases as mentioned earlier are 157. Of these cases, counseling cases constitute 32% of the total cases, counseling and legal advice cases from 68% and there are no advice cases. The number of total domestic violence (DV) cases is 105 and non domestic violence (NDV) cases are 52. Each category of cases is bifurcated into DV and NDV. The counseling cases has 4 DV cases (8%) and 47 NDV cases (92%) whereas, counseling and legal advice category has 101 DV cases (95%) and 5 NDV cases (5%). The DV cases include 61 cases of physical and sexual violence, 26 cases of emotional violence and 18 cases of economic stressors.

The group therapy workshops were conducted thrice during the year where in a total of 87 women participated.

The group therapy in the shape of awareness raising workshop has strengthened the women to start saying “NO” to violence, learning better coping skills to reduce the level of stress, gaining better health through medical help, seeking advice from legal counselor, etc.

On the whole, awareness among women has spread at a faster pace and many women have been benefited through the process. Women have gained an understanding of living a better quality of life by strongly facing the hurdles of life. Counseling has provided better coping skills and supportive environment where they feel empowered.

Mental Health Project for Adolescents

Overview of the Project

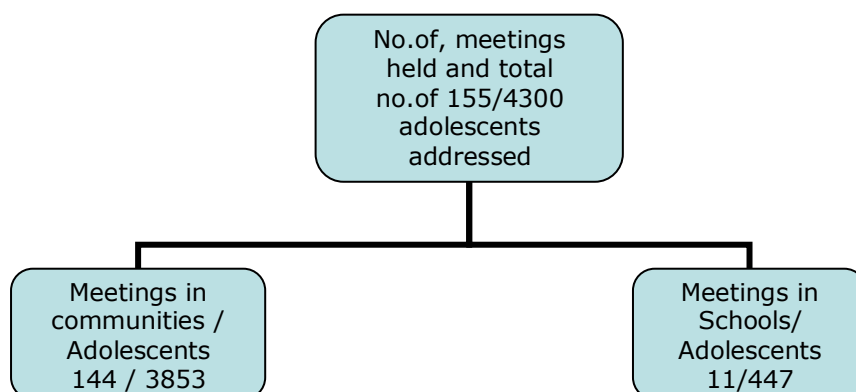

The 'Mental Health Project for Adolescents' undertaken by AWAG started during the month of September 2008. The project makes an attempt to reach out to the adolescent group both in the community as well as in schools. To resolve the effects caused in various different areas of adolescents life, the project focuses on particular objectives as mentioned below:

- 1) To identify psychological problems prevailing among adolescents.
- 2) To intervene among adolescents so that they develop better coping skills to have a better quality of life.
- 3) To provide psycho-education to parents where need arises.
- 4) To train teachers of schools in Bapunagar in providing support to adolescents.
- 5) To hold hands of teachers and monitor their performance.

To fulfill these objectives, the following activities need to be undertaken

- 1) Approaching schools to contact adolescents enrolled
- 2) Approaching communities to contact non-school going and dropped out adolescents.
- 3) Adolescents to be guided to curative path
- 4) Counseling
- 5) Psycho-education of parents
- 6) Psychiatric care with medicines
- 7) Teachers training for care of adolescents
- 8) Monitoring of Teachers' performance

As per the proposal and the details mentioned for implementation and completion of activities, we have been able to achieve the target. A total of 155 awareness raising meetings were conducted. The awareness meetings conducted in community and schools are listed below:

The adolescents, who approached our center, were helped through both individual as well as group counseling as per the need. Also parental counseling was given wherever needed. The adolescents were also provided with medical facilities with the help of a visiting psychiatrist.

Adolescent counseling

Intervention done by the psychiatrist

A total of 278 cases were counseled. Out of which 74 cases approached the center while 204 cases were intervened within the school by the counselor. The table below shows the total number of adolescent girls and boys who were given with counseling services. When categorized 270 cases (97%) fall under counseling category, 8 cases (3%) under psychiatric category. None of cases fall under advice category. Out of the 270 counseling cases, around 209 (77%) cases face academic problems, 61 (23%) cases face emotional / behavioral / personal/ family problems.

Alongside, a total of 24 teachers underwent training workshops conducted by psychologists and psychotherapists so as to built sensitivity and understanding of psychological aspects and behavioral patterns of such children and urged the teachers to be supportive towards them. Regular monitoring and follow-up of teachers was also conducted by AWAG. Likewise in counseling cases, parents were provided with suitable suggestions to improve the mental health of their children.

The resultant effects of AWAG's interventions with adolescents over the year are that the affected children, their parents and teachers have gained considerable awareness regarding the psychological problems prevailing among adolescents. Moreover, through training workshops and counseling sessions, they have developed skills to cope effectively with their lives wherein the children experience a warm, secure and a healthy environment.

The Cascade training: Young Women Social Entrepreneurship

Ahmedabad Women's Action Group (AWAG) conducted a three-day training program on Young Women Social Entrepreneurship. This training which originally conducted in IIM-K, initiated by British Council and sponsored by DIAGEO was meant to cascade further. From AWAG, Mrs. Farnaz Barodawala was selected as the master trainer and nominated to go IIMK for the training. British Council members visited AWAG's Bapunagar office to conduct the interview and glance at the social enterprise model of AWAG Ekta.

The women who participated in this forum belonged to the age group of eighteen to thirty years. It was a group of twenty-five young women with a merger of labor class, professionals working in various fields, housewives aspiring to initiate a business enterprise and students about to complete or about to enter a new academic benchmark. AWAG's community leaders took efforts in congregating this group of twenty-five women through a thorough research of their backgrounds by conducting a brief interview with them. The women who attended this training were from various parts of the Ahmedabad city including Bapunagar, Rakhial, Saraspur, Sarkhej, Isanpur and Thakkarbapanagar. Two rounds of such trainings were conducted during the year 2014 - 15 on 22 - 24 April and 07 - 09 June respectively. Total 50 participants participated the workshop.

Educated and Protected: A Brighter Future for India's Children in Deodar District, Banaskantha (UNICEF)

Based on the country Programme Action Plan between the Government of India and UNICEF, UNICEF agreed to co-operate with AWAG by allotting a six months project from: 26th August 2014 - 25th February 2015 in Deodar district, Banaskantha.

As per the project activities to be carried out with the small scale funding agreement were as follows:

- Street Play/ Campaign for Orientation of Parents from excluded and migratory population on Education
- Orientation of women on the benefits of Girl's Education and issues that have a direct bearing on absenteeism
- CRPs/ VVs to liaise with CMCs, BRCCs, CRCCs and ensure participation of SMCs in trainings and other meetings as well as school level events. CRPs/ VVs to undertake community level SMC interactions through home visits to SMC members and recognition of well performing SMCs at block and cluster level
- Recognition to children (and their parents) who have maximum attendance in school/ anganwadi center as well as the Teacher/ Head Teacher of the school and Anganwadi worker/ Supervisor of the anganwadi center
- Strengthen children participation in school activities such as maintaining hygiene and sanitation, self and peers discipline, etc.
- Support teacher/ anganwadi worker to conduct innovative activities/ competitions for the children on special days
- Review membership of CPC through verification of CPC resolutions
- 1 day CPC, AGG and VV meeting at cluster level to facilitate experience sharing and interface
- Baseline of out-of-school children and CP issues to be carried out by members of AGGs, CGs and VV
- Identify orphans, single parent children, children from very poor families, and differently-abled children for adoption, foster care and sponsorship schemes

For this, interventions in the form of trainings, meetings and follow-ups were carried out at community level and at government and district level. In six months, AWAG was successful in undertaking all the above mention tasks in 72 villages of Deodar district.

AWAG's Continuing Activities

Counseling centre

AWAG runs four counseling centers. One is run at Ahmedabad, Bapunagar and one each is run at Rapar in Kutchh district and at Radhanpur.

Legal Aid Centers

AWAG runs two Legal Aid Centers, one at Ahmedabad and one at Radhanpur where women looking for legal assistance are provided counseling and aid. They are offered support in attending courts as well.

Short Stay Home

A shelter housing women in distress is run at Ahmedabad. The inmates are provided counseling, legal counsel, legal aid and shelter leading to rehabilitation during a time span of one day to three years.

Income Generation

The inmates of the Short Stay Home are offered skill learning. They learn skills and upgrade their learning to high level and then start working for income. Most women join in stitching. Others undertake other activities.

24 hour helpline

AWAG runs a 24 hour helpline for women from 2002 onwards. It was initially supported by the state, but from 2007 onwards it has been run by AWAG.

(g) Networks

AWAG is associated with two networks. Alliance of All Gujarat Women (AAG) was floated by AWAG in 1995 on the issue of Violence against Women. It continues to come together. Recently, its members came to the launching of Olwayela Diva and took copies of the book to be used for advocacy. AWAG's Founder Secretary Dr. Ila Pathak was asked to look after another network, Gujarat Mahila Federation from 2007. It is active as women's representative voice addressing the State on gender issues.
